The word "BEST" has been so much abused that we often hesitate to use it.

It so happens, though, that there is no other word that will adequately describe the Stieff piano. It is just as near perfection as human skill has yet been able to reach. It combines the high qualities of other instruments, and has many unique additions of its own.

Three Peddlers Arrested—H. C. Orem in Custody.

Tr. T. Irwin Fined $10 and Costs For Allow-ing a Horse to Suffer—Several Cases in the United States Court Disposed of—Norfolk Creditors Caught.

E. B. Hodges & Co., have brought suit in the Court of Law and Chancery against Bernard Abel & Co., for the recovery of $40.80. Funds in the hands of Valden & Co., were attached.

The Smith-Courtney Company has brought suit in the same court against E. A. Wilson & Co., for the recovery of $248.70. Effects in the possession of the Southern Railway were attached.

ARRESTING PEDDLERS. The police are arresting peddlers who have escaped Sealer of Weights and Measures A. W. Grandy in his rounds of the city. Three negroes have been taken into custody for using unstamped measures and seal.

Henry Nelson was fined $10 and costs in the Police Court and was held on the charge of having unlawfully obtained $40 worth of brass found in his possession. Alex Jones and James Hoggins, arrested later will have a hearing before Justice Taylor today.

H. C. OREM DETAINED. Henry C. Orem, formerly connected with the Norfolk Freight and Transportation Bureau, was taken into custody at Adams House by Deputy City Sergeant W. A. Thompson on Thursday night on an absconding debtor capias issued from the Clerk's office yesterday afternoon at the instance of J. V. Alfriend & Co., a claim against him amounting to $47.20. Mr. J. L. Hubbard said last night he was trying to arrange the case so that Mr. Orem might be released.

W. T. IRWIN FINED. Mr. W. T. Irwin's case was heard in the Corporation Court by Judge A. R. Hancok yesterday afternoon. He was fined in the Police Court, on September 22d, for cruelty to a horse. In the Corporation Court the fine was affirmed by a jury during the October term. Irwin got a new hearing by Judge Hancok without a jury yesterday, when Judge Hancok affirmed the judgment of $10 and costs.

UNITED STATES COURT. Joseph Irwin, of the Hampton Soldiers' Home, assault and battery; satisfaction acknowledged by the complainant and nolle prosequi entered.

Johnson Pullen, of the Hampton Soldiers' Home, malicious assault; tried and convicted of unlawful assault. Sentence, $10 and costs and four months' imprisonment in Hampton Jail.

Thomas Guy, procuring forgery in pension case, not guilty.

Charles Sharp, colored, charged with forgery and perjury in connection with pensions pleaded not guilty yesterday. The case will be continued today.

Last night argument upon the motion for an arrest of judgment in the Oliver assault case was heard by Judge Waddill.

General Edgar Allan, District Attorney, appeared before Judge Waddill in the United States District Court last night to argue against the motion for the arrest of the verdict in the case of Frank S. Oliver, convicted of an attempt to commit a crime.

General Allan argued that the verdict should stand, because it is in accordance with the practice of the courts and particularly with the decision of the Justice Field in the Snaron and Sarah Athia Hill case in California. In which an assault was committed on a member of the court.

The counsel for Oliver, Hon. R. R. Thorp, contended that the Judge Waddill was in the predicament of changing the verdict of the jury in the case of or hanging the convicted man as the laws of Virginia demand. There is no penalty affixed to an attempt to commit this crime by the United States Statutes.

Judge Waddill stated that he would not hang the culprit. But the argument went on between the lawyers so that the Judge will be compelled to reserve his opinion as to the dilemma as presented.

IN THE CORPORATION COURT. Joe Young, colored, cutting W. H. Gordon on October 24th; eight months in jail and $10 fine.

Phoebe Clody, colored, assault; fined $10 and costs.

Bill Darden, colored, stealing $95 from H. Doe. The jury failed to find a verdict and was discharged.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY.

C. R. Blattenham, of Newport News, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States Court here yesterday. Liabilities, $4,536.52, with assets amounting to $3,134. Norfolk creditors are: Consumers' Brewing Company, $70.75; J. C. Haynes, $13.15; W. P. Ives & Co., $45.50. Lett & Massie, of Newport News, are counsel for the plaintiff.

HENRY NELSON SENTENCED. Henry Nelson, a 17-year-old colored boy, who was caught stealing two dozen buns from a James T. Davis bakery wagon, received a six months' jail sentence in Police Justice Taylor's Court yesterday.

IN THE POLICE COURT. Simon Barber, larceny, warrant; dismissed.

Church Smith, carrying a concealed knife; fined $25.

Pat Armstrong, vagrancy; ten days in the jail hospital.

Anna Gross, violating the sanitary ordinance; continued until today.

Abraham Taylor, Cora Bridges, Emma Taylor and William Pollard, all colored, fighting; fined $7.25 each.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. John J. White to W. H. Jaques, two lots fronting 25 feet each on the east side of Chapel street, 25 feet north of Rogers street; $800.

R. H. Baker, Jr., to James T. Nottingham, two lots fronting 40 feet each on the prolongation of Charles street, $200.

Sudden Deaths. A colored man named Jacob Williams, aged about 50 years, fell from a chair in which he was sitting at No. 144 James street, Thursday night, and when picked up by members of his family was found to be dead. Coroner Spillman viewed the body and decided that Williams died from heart trouble. No inquest was held.

A colored girl from North Carolina died suddenly at 238 Cumberland street Thursday night. An autopsy, held by Coroner Spillman, at the city morgue, yesterday, revealed the fact that the woman died of heart trouble and no inquest was deemed necessary. The name of the deceased was Jennie Thomas. The remains were buried by the city yesterday afternoon.

Feast of the Immaculate Conception. Today, in the calendar of the Catholic Church, is known as the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, and is celebrated in memory of the inestimable privilege granted to the mother of God of being conceived in original justice and exempted from all sin. It is a day especially dear to Catholics, the Virgin Mary being the patroness of the United States, and in their prayers today beg of her to protect and bless our country, our fellow citizens and ourselves in a particular manner, that through her intercession justice, union, peace and prosperity may reign throughout the land, with an increase of faith and piety.

The services this morning will begin with mass at 6:30 o'clock, to be followed later at 7:30 by another mass, at which a class of children will make their first communion. At 9:30 the last mass will be celebrated. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock Bishop Van de Vyver will confirm a class of children, as well as a number of adults. The service will close with benediction.
